SPONSOR PROFILE

2008 EOWA AUSTRALIAN CENSUS OF WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

Macquarie University

Macquarie University is a modern research intensive institution with a mission to serve the needs of industry and the community. It has led the way on EEO and diversity, winning awards for its strategies to lift barriers in the path of female students and staff. Macquarie University is committed to equity and diversity in employment and education, and to creating a fair and inclusive work and study environment. The University, through its Labour-Management Studies Foundation, has hosted the acclaimed Women, Management and Employment Relations Conference since 1989. Macquarie University is also proud to be a Gold Sponsor of the EOWA Australian Census of Women in Leadership.

Data collection and analyses were conducted by staff and associates at Macquarie University. The project was directed by Associate Professor Peter McGraw, Director, Labour-Management Studies Foundation, Department of Business, Division of Economic and Financial Studies. Dr Margaret Mackisak, Chartered Statistician collected and validated the data.
