

Australian Government

Equal Opportunity for
Women in the Workplace Agency

Peter McGraw

MACQUARIE UNIVERSITY

Associate Professor Peter McGraw is Director of the Labour-Management Studies Foundation at Macquarie University in Sydney.

Peter is an Associate Professor in the Department of Business within the Division of Economic and Financial Studies where he lectures in the areas of management as well as general human resource management. Over several years as Director of the Labour-Management Studies Foundation, Peter has directed the research for the EOWA Census of Women in Leadership and related projects concerning the impact of gender on senior executive salaries. His current research projects concern HR in multinational companies and pay equity at senior levels in corporate Australia. He is Co-Director of the annual Women, Management and Employment Relations Conference held in Sydney.

Prior to taking his current position, Peter was a faculty member at Macquarie Graduate School of Management where he was consistently ranked as one of the best teachers and most sought after corporate educators.

For interviews or more information please contact:

Peter McGraw 02 9850 9034 or 0417 812 289

Lyn Danninger 02 9850 7257