

Lynn Wood, Board Member, HSBC Bank

Lynn Wood was appointed to the HSBC Bank Australia board in October 2005. Lynn Wood is currently a member of the Foreign Investment Review Board, a director of MS, a compliance committee member at Barclays Global Investors and Mellon Global Investments and chairman of the Audit Committee of the NSW Government Department of Natural Resources. Previous board memberships include Macquarie Goodman Group, NSW Lotteries Corporation, Sedgwick Holdings, Schroders Australia and United Funds Management.

Ms Wood's executive career began with American Express where she became director sales and marketing for NE Asia based in Hong Kong with responsibilities for strategic planning and profitability of destination markets as well as sales and marketing for the region. Since then, Ms Wood has managed marketing divisions for Myer, Citibank and David Jones and developed property funds management for the international investment bank, Schroders. She also co-founded United Funds Management.