

Stuart Davis, CEO, HSBC Bank

Mr Davis joined the investment banking arm of the HSBC Group in Australia in 1981 and undertook several roles in corporate banking and specialised lending in Australia, Hong Kong and the USA.

In 1994, he was appointed Head of Commercial Banking and shortly afterwards, Managing Director, of HSBC Bank Australia Limited, which also included responsibility for the wholesale banking business of HSBC Bank plc's Sydney branch.

In January 1999, Mr Davis became Chief Executive Officer of HSBC in Taiwan, where he was responsible for the personal and commercial banking operations of The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation.

Mr Davis was appointed Chief Executive Officer of HSBC in Australia in 2002.