

Catholic Education Office

The Catholic Education Office serves the South Australian Commission for Catholic Schools and Catholic schools throughout the state. It provides leadership and support in all dimensions of education to principals, teachers, students and families who constitute Catholic schools in South Australia.

The Catholic Education Office is committed to outstanding working relations with its employees and actively seeks to ensure that policies, practices and structures are equitable and family oriented. The office, under the direction of its Director, Mr Allan Dooley, makes time and resources available for employees, and especially women, to reflect on and implement improved office structures and practices. There is a commitment to ensuring that the culture of the office encourages all employees to be able to do their best work while at the same time thoroughly enjoying the experience. The office is committed to being a learning environment. Such a culture ensures good service delivery to schools, families and the educational community.
